As a parent with two children in the Maricopa Unified School District, I fully support the bond proposal for building new schools. Our district is experiencing rapid growth, and without new facilities, our children will face overcrowded classrooms that hinder their ability to learn effectively. Smaller class sizes are essential for providing personalized attention, fostering strong teacher-student relationships, and ensuring that each child's unique needs are met.

I understand the challenges of school finance, particularly the chronic underfunding from the State. Relying solely on state funds is not enough to maintain the quality of education our children deserve. The bond proposal is a responsible and necessary step to ensure that we can accommodate the increasing number of students without sacrificing educational standards. Investing in our schools is investing in our community's future. It's about giving our kids the best possible environment to thrive academically and socially. I urge everyone to vote in favor of this bond to keep our schools strong and our children's futures bright.
