I, Nancy Smith, fully endorse the upcoming bond measure on November 5, 2024. Because MUSD is experiencing unprecedented growth, this bond is essential for constructing new schools and expanding existing ones to accommodate rising student population, all while keeping the current tax rate unchanged.

By approving this bond, we ensure every student has access to safe and well-equipped learning environments. The addition of new schools and expanded classroom spaces will enhance educational outcomes, maintain class sizes, and elevate property values, benefiting our entire community. This measure has been crafted with careful financial planning to ensure the greatest impact without increasing the tax rate.

The District's commitment to transparency and accountability is unwavering. A citizens' oversight committee will oversee the bond funds, and the community will receive regular progress updates. Supporting this bond is crucial for sustaining the high standards of education that our community expects and deserves.
