I am happy to endorse Prop 488 on the November ballot. As a resident of Maricopa since 2005, I have seen our community's remarkable growth and the challenges we have overcome. With our city's continued expansion, the need for additional schools is crucial. State funding for new schools no longer covers the costs in today's market. Prop 488 would provide necessary funding for building new schools with essential features like indoor cafeterias, quality flooring, painted walls, desks, chairs, and technology and security enhancements to ensure the safety of our students and staff. Additionally, the bond will enable major renovations and expansions of classroom space in our high schools. Importantly, all this can be achieved without raising taxes.

As someone with limited income and no children or grandchildren in the school system, I am voting YES on Prop 488 because I believe in investing in our community's future. Please join me in supporting this vital initiative to build a brighter future for our students and community on November 5th.
